

SAIA NOMINATION GUIDELINES

SAIA Nominee Eligibility

To be eligible for a SAIA award, all nominees must:

- reside in Calgary or surrounding areas;
- be eighteen (18) years of age or older, except,
 - the Rising Star Award is for those between 14 and 19 years of age;
- be a Canadian citizen or permanent resident or have valid legal status in Canada;
- not be an elected official or currently running for elected office;
- have no criminal conviction for which a pardon has not been received;
- consent to the nomination and publication of their name, photo, and related information,
 - for Rising Star nominees under the age of 18, this consent must also be provided by their parent or legal guardian.

SAIA Nominee Consent

All nominees must provide confirmation of their understanding and consent to the collection and use of their personal information by SAIA.

As nominator, you must contact the nominee and ask for consent. You must then ensure to tick off the box on the nomination form that this step has been completed and that the nominee has given consent.

For Rising Star nominees under the age of 18, you must contact their parent or legal guardian and receive consent.
